

EPA Worksheet*

1. EPA Title	Demonstrate competence in the utilization of immunomodulatory therapy for pediatric rheumatology patient
2. Description of the activity	Pediatric Systemic Inflammatory Disorders are managed with immunomodulatory treatment the focal components of this professional activity include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Medical knowledge, including: the mechanisms of action of medications, indications, costs risks, benefits, alternatives, and potential complications of the therapies (during administration and at follow up) Recognize the different forms and formulations available of each immunomodulatory agent (oral, intravenous, subcutaneous, and intra-articular) • Interpret lab results or data related to the administration of immunomodulatory agents • Communication with the patient and family that insures informed consent as well as post-therapy explanation and instruction • Utilization of evidence-based literature and guidelines where applicable. • Monitor compliance and effectiveness of treatment • Educate the broader medical community on the indications and utility of immunomodulatory agents , • Advocate for access to care with immunomodulatory agents for all children who would benefit from treatment • Contribute to efforts to better define the indications and safety of these agents - either by participating in collaborative research efforts or providing information on adverse events to the FDA
3. Judicious mapping to domains of competence	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Patient Care <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Medical Knowledge <input type="checkbox"/> Practice-based Learning and Improvement <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Interpersonal & Communication Skills <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Professionalism <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Systems-based Practice <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Personal and Professional Development
4. Competencies within	PC6

August 30, 2013

each domain critical to entrustment decisions	PC7 PC8 MK2 PC9 ICS5 SBP3 SBP5 PD7 P3
5. Curriculum	Knowledge skills and attitudes needed to execute EPA safely (refer back to functions in activity description)

*Modified from the work of Olle ten Cate